PERSONAL.

Any one who knows much about the Chronicle knows that it is a great advocate of the building of factories and puts its faith in diversified industries. It is our chief ambition to see Clarksville a great manufacturing city and all the country that surrounds it alive with numerous industries that will give a greater variety of employment to both capital and labor, and enhance the value of land and increase the profit of agriculture.

We are always glad to hear of any movement in that direction and are delighted to know that movements of the kind that have been made are meeting with success. Some time ago

Mr. E. B. Ross began at Rossville in this county to manufacture his "Pipe of Peace" smoking tobacco, which is fast achieving a national reputation.

It supplies a place that no other brand of smoking tobacco can fill, and is highly esteemed because it is absolutely free from adulteration.

To this industry Mr. Ross has recently added the manufacture of "Home Spin Twist" chewing tobacco.

It has only been on the market a short while, and whether day he was both pleased and surprised to receive an order from New Mexico for a large quantity of the tobacco, said he wanted an article that contained no copperas, horic or other adulteration. Mr.

Ross' tobacco fills this bill.

He is building up a fine trade for his tobacco in Texas and other Western states.

A Ball Player.

An unknown negro walked into the Barkdale residence on Franklin street, between two and three o'clock Friday evening, when no one was at home except Mrs. A. D. Barkdale and going to the room of Mr. Bailey Barkdale, which is on the top stairs floor, proceeded to ransack and loot it.

Mrs. Barkdale, who is quite an old lady, was in one of the first floor rooms at the time and knew nothing of the negro being in the house until she heard him coming down the back stairs, when she saw him in the yard, saw him at the same time. He was very bold and impudent, and tried to get into the "down stairs room" which Mrs. Barkdale had locked when she first heard him. He left before any one could be called to arrest him. Investigation showed that he had carried off about ten dollars in money that was in the drawers he went through. A description of him was given to police and next morning he was arrested in a negro lodge in Skunkville. "Squire Caldwell sent him to jail in default of $500 bond.

Dr. Trotter.

Mr. J. S. Lee, of Erin, was in the city Wednesday and a representative of the CHRONICLE interviewed him in regard to the dispatch sent from Erin to the American, concerning the effects of the late Dr. Trotter. Mr.

Lee says the reported Louisiana bonds turned out to be Confederate bonds and that it is not generally supposed that the iron chest spoken of contains any thing valuable. The dispatch, however, which was re-telegraphed to the Courier-Journal, has aroused the Doctor's numerous and very affectionate relatives, and they have been dispatching to have his supposed wealth secured. Since he had that paralytic stroke in Nashville, Dr. Trotter has been bed-ridden and perfectly helpless.

He was well cared for during this time by the relation he resided with at Erin.

R. T. Bogard was in the city Thursday.

Miss John Brouder and Miss Mary

Gardner are visiting relatives at Erin.

Miss Mary Richardson and Master Frank

Purnell were in the city Tuesday.

Col. Wm. H. Moore, of Nashville, was in the city Wednesday.

Miss Permelia Douglas is seriously ill at Idaho Springs.

Miss Katie Griffin has been visiting friends in the city this week.

Miss Grace Daugherty is visiting the family of Mr. J. H. Uerry, on the Southside.

Mrs. Wm. H. Moore of Nashville, has been visiting the family of Mr. John Edmondson on the Southside.

Mr. Irvin Edmondson of the Southside, has accepted a situation as clerk in Mr.

Edmondson's store at Peachtree Mills.

Miss Maud Drake, who has been visiting her cousin, Mr. S. R. Daly, left for her home in Davidson county Friday morning.

Prof. J. W. Graham, Superintendent of the city schools, returned from Nashville

Tuesday evening.

Miss Eva Bailey of Nashville, has been elected as one of the teachers in the Howell school, Wednesday.

Rev. J. D. D-nnell, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, has resigned his pastoral charge and left Monday evening.

Prof. S. A. Link of Ashland, Ky. gave an address on his way from Ma. Vernon,

Ill., where he had been to visit relatives.

He was much encouraged at the prospect of his school at Adam's Station.

Celia Telephone: Mr. T. N. Watson, who has been in the city during this week, buy-

for his home in Clarksville. During his stay here he made a number of warm friends of whom he regretted to see him leave.

The following personal notice of a young lady well known and much liked in Clarksville appeared in the Nashville Banner on recent date:

Miss Katie Chisholm, of Nashville, is in passing through the city on her way to her home in the South. She has received an offer from the Emma Henderson school, and has accepted it.

Sam Jones at Murfreesboro.

To the Chronicle:

At your request I give you a few items about my meeting here at the gospel tent. Nearly 200 joined the different churches yesterday morning, and at the afternoon and night services, nearly as many more professed faith in Christ. A pastor told me just now that he thought there had been close to five hundred conversions up to the close of the service last night.

There were perhaps six thousand people present yesterday. The most presented over people: There has been but one arrest by the police in Murfreesboro since the meeting commenced and Sam Jones said last night the fellow was arrested for doing something he told him not to do. It has rained nearly all the week and an umbrella was the article stolen. The C. P. pastor said to me while ago that
